Book 4 The Pupil Book is organised around five text types - narratives, recounts, explanations, information reports and poetry. This enables pupils to acquire different language skills in meaningful contexts. Each unit is driven by a particular theme through which a text type is introduced and reinforced.

Source – Marshall Cavendish – The Great Artists. Odilon Redon was a French painter, draughtsman and printmaker and one of the key figures of Symbolism. He was born in Bordeaux in the same year as Monet, but his career and interests were widely different. Redon resisted the Impressionist movement which he criticised for concentrating on an "external ideal". For him the subject of art was ...
